CRUISE BOOKING POLICIES

4.1 Passenger Names All passengers must be booked under their full legal name exactly as it appears on their government-issued photo ID (passport for international cruises, state ID or passport for domestic). Name corrections after booking may incur fees from the cruise line.

4.2 Age Requirements Some cruise lines and stateroom categories have minimum age requirements. Families with children under 6 months old may be restricted on certain sailings. Alcohol policies and other shipboard amenities vary by cruise line and guest age.

4.3 Citizenship and Documentation Closed-Loop Cruises (departing and returning to the same U.S. port): U.S. citizens may sail with a valid U.S. passport or an original birth certificate + government-issued photo ID. International Sailings or Air Travel: A valid U.S. passport is required for all travelers. Passports must be valid for at least six months beyond the return date.

4.4 Medical and Mobility Guests with mobility needs, medical devices, or requiring accessible staterooms should advise Agent at time of booking. Accessible cabins are limited and subject to availability.

CRUISE LINE CANCELLATION POLICY

The following are typical cruise line cancellation penalties. Specific terms applicable to your booking will be confirmed in writing at time of booking.

Days Before Sailing	Typical Penalty
121+ days	Deposit amount
91–120 days	25% of total cruise fare
61–90 days	50% of total cruise fare
31–60 days	75% of total cruise fare
0–30 days	100% of total cruise fare

Cancellation penalties vary by cruise line, sailing, and cabin category. Special promotion fares may carry more restrictive cancellation policies.

Agent Cancellation/Processing Fee: $ _____ (non-refundable, in addition to cruise line penalties)

TRAVEL PROTECTION / INSURANCE

Cruises represent a significant non-refundable investment. Travel insurance is strongly recommended for all cruise guests.

Cruise line travel protection programs cover some risks but may be more limited than independent travel insurance policies. Agent can present options from both sources.

□ Client is interested in travel insurance options. □ Client declines travel insurance. (Travel Insurance Declination form required.)

ONBOARD CREDITS AND PERKS

[AGENT NAME / BUSINESS NAME] may be able to offer onboard credits or perks through Cornerstone Collective's supplier partnerships. Any confirmed amenities or credits will be documented in writing. Perks are subject to availability and cruise line confirmation.

Confirmed Onboard Credit (if applicable): $ _____

(OBC from: _____)

SHORE EXCURSIONS

Excursions booked through the cruise line are subject to that cruise line's cancellation and refund policy.

Independently booked excursions carry their own cancellation terms. In the event your ship cannot tender at a port, independently booked excursion refunds are subject to that operator's policy, which may be less forgiving than the cruise line's policy.

[AGENT NAME / BUSINESS NAME] can assist with both cruise line and independent excursion bookings.

IMPORTANT CRUISE CONSIDERATIONS

Guest acknowledges:

- ☐ Tipping/gratuity policies vary by cruise line. Pre-paid gratuities or onboard automatic daily gratuities may apply.
- ☐ Alcohol packages, specialty dining, spa services, Wi-Fi, and shore excursions are typically not included in cruise fares unless specifically noted.
- ☐ Guests must arrive at the ship by the posted “all aboard” time. Late arrivals will not cause the ship to delay departure.
- ☐ Guests sailing with medical conditions should disclose requirements to the cruise line and verify the ship’s medical capabilities.
- ☐ International sailings may require visas for some ports of call. It is the guest’s responsibility to verify requirements.

LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

[AGENT NAME / BUSINESS NAME] acts as an intermediary and is not responsible for:

- Cruise line cancellations, itinerary changes, or altered port calls
- Onboard incidents, injuries, or property damage
- Acts or omissions of the cruise line or shore excursion operators
- Force majeure events affecting the sailing

The cruise line’s own passage contract (provided at time of booking) contains additional terms and limitations, which the guest agrees to upon accepting the booking.
